Included are details on the various pay and benefits, job descriptions, step-by-step instructions on how to apply for and get a home-based job, profiles of successful homeworkers and their employers, tax advantages, and more. The book also comes with a bonus booklet of pre-written contact letters to make up a “fast-start kit” which is available for $19.95 plus $3 shipping from: Michaels Resource Group, Post Office Box 248, Vandergrift, PA 15690.

Over 27 million Americans now work at home. The U.S. Department of Labor predicts that number will double in the next ten years. What are all of those people getting paid to do? Some of the homemaker opportunities include: hand assembly of everything from jewelry to fishing lures, typing addresses on envelopes, translating, proofreading, doing marketing surveys by telephone, composing poems and rhymes for greeting cards, taking photographs for ad agencies, illustrating books, packaging products, fund raising by phone, computer programming, opening and processing mail, knitting sweaters, drawing cartoons, painting figurines, making hand crafted items of all kinds, etc.
